WHAT TO EXPECT

Granada is a perfect cycling getaway destination, excellent for a cycling holiday. There is an infinity of MTB trails for all levels from beginners to advanced cyclists with different gradient climbs of varying lengths and a huge variety of elevation profiles through an area with a great diversity of landscapes from rolling hills, pine forests, deserts, and mountains to the tropical coast.

The MTB Escape Granada Tour takes you on 3 varied trails. Except for the first day, the rides are organized in the morning, giving you time to relax in the afternoon while enjoying your rural accommodation. On the first day, we organize a route in the afternoon.

There is the option to visit the city of Granada and explore the many cultural sites and countless tapa bars and restaurants. For those who would like to visit the Alhambra Palace, there is the option to organize the tour on the last day in the morning.

Being a tour of 4 days, the MTB Escape Granada is designed for those who need a break and want to take a few days off looking for some great riding. For non-riding partners, we organize extra activities during your stay.

Easy to get to Granada by our organized transport either in the airport Málaga or Granada.

We have extensive knowledge of all the trails and tailor each ride to the guests to ensure you a great experience with us.

Join us and explore our trails with your friends or family in the great outdoors of Granada.
